

1. SCHOOL PLAY

Four proud parents made good use of their camcorders at their children's first school play. Each person was either father or mother to a different child who had a prominent part in the play. Can you discover each child's part in the play and whether his father or mother was there to record it?

1. Girls played the queen and the fairy princess, and boys played the king and the prince.
2. Eugene didn't play the king.
3. Alison's mother saw the play.
4. Gina (who didn't play the queen) was glad that her father took off time from work to see the play.
5. Kenny is one of the two children whose fathers were there taping the show.

ANSWERS

1. SCHOOL PLAY

Eugene didn't play the king (2), so he played the prince (1). Kenny played the king (1). Gina didn't play the queen (4); she played the fairy princess. By elimination, Alison played the queen. Her mother came to see the play (3). Gina's father (4) and Kenny's father (5) came to see the play (4). Since there were only two fathers there (5), Eugene's mother came to the play.

Alison	queen	mother
Eugene	prince	mother
Gina	fairy princess	father
Kenny	king	father
